CONTACTS

For media information, credential/interview requests or questions, please contact Sprague Paynter at 404.561.0421 or Sprague.Paynter@atlantadream.net or Tonya Alleyne at 404-693-5181 or Tonya.Alleyne@atlantadream.net in the Dream Media Relations Department. The fax number is 678.510.7489.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests should be submitted in writing to the Dream Media Relations Department at least 24 HOURS PRIOR to the game you wish to cover (3 p.m. on Friday for Saturday or Sunday games) via e-mail. NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY. Credentials are issued to accredited members of the media who are on-assignment to cover a specific game. Please confirm all credentials with the Dream Media Relations Department prior to arriving at Philips Arena. Credentials may be picked up at the primary media entrance beginning 2.5 hours prior to game time. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times and are non-transferable.

MEDIA DIRECTIONS & PARKING

MEDIA ENTRANCE

Follow the same directions to Philips Arena, and the entrance is on Park Avenue West (located on the right) before you get to Media Parking Lot A. The press room is located directly on the right as you enter the media will call entrance area.

MEDIA WORKROOM

The Dream Media Workroom is located to the right of the Media Entrance off Park Avenue West at Philips Arena. It will open 2.5 hours prior to tip-off. Press room usage is only available to those with a valid Dream media credential. Phone lines, fax service and wireless service are provided free of charge.

PRE AND POST GAME INTERVIEWS

In accordance with the WNBA policy, the Dream's and the visitor's locker rooms will be open to members of the media for 30 minutes ending one hour before the start of the game (e.g., media access will be granted from 5:30-6 p.m. for a 7 p.m. game). Locker rooms are opened to the media after the game following a 10-minute cooling down period and will remain open for 30 minutes. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the press with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. ABSOLUTELY NO PHOTOGRAPHS OR CELL PHONE USE ALLOWED DURING MEDIA LOCKER ROOM ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS

Pre-game press notes, media guides and line-up sheets will be available in the interview room prior to each game. Game statistics will be distributed to the working media twice during each half, as well as halftime and postgame. Postgame quotes and notes are distributed as quickly as possible following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Limited space is available for photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined on game day. For the safety of the players and in accordance with league rules, photographers must remain seated at least four feet behind the baseline at all times. Use of a flash is prohibited. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must stay in their designated areas and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area.

PRACTICE POLICY

The Dream will practice at Philips Arena from 2-5 PM. Approximately, the final 30 minutes of each practice will be open to the media. Coaches and players will be available for brief interviews immediately after practice. Please contact the Dream Media Relations Department to confirm practice times, sites and the availability of players and coaches.

MARY BROCK
Owner

A philanthropist and active community leader in a variety of organizations and also an avid sports advocate, Mary Brock joined the Atlanta Dream's ownership group in January 2011. Brock serves on multiple boards, including the Board of Directors for Horizons National, a program for underserved youth that focuses on the learning achievement gap, based in Norwalk, CT, with 20 affiliates across the country. She also serves on the Board of the Manhattan Choral Ensemble in NYC, and she and her husband, John, are devoted supporters of Americares, an organization that provides disaster relief and humanitarian aid, based in Stamford CT. Locally, Brock serves on the Board of Advisors for the Winship Cancer Institute and the Board of Visitors for Emory University. She has a particular interest in cancer research and along with her husband John, has funded chairs in biomedical engineering at Emory University and Georgia Tech University. They also support Emory Healthcare Research and the C.A.M.P. program in the Emory Department of Psychology. Brock and her husband have been active supporters of the Georgia Tech Athletic Director's Fund, the Alexander-Tharpe Fund for Georgia Tech athletics and Chemical Engineering scholarships. Most recently, they funded the major leadership gift for the Georgia Tech "John and Mary Brock Football Facility." Prior to moving to Atlanta five years ago, she lived in Connecticut and also spent 10 years in Europe in Belgium and London. A native of Moss Point, Mississippi, she earned her Bachelor of Science in Science and Math Education and her Masters of Science Education in Curriculum Development from Miami University of Ohio.

KELLY LOEFFLER
Owner

A successful Atlanta businesswoman, Kelly Loeffler joined the Atlanta Dream's ownership group in January 2011. Loeffler is Vice President of Investor Relations and Corporate Communications at Intercontinental Exchange (NYSE: ICE). In this role, she is responsible for all aspects of ICE's investor relations, public relations, corporate communications, marketing and brand strategy. Prior to joining ICE in 2002, Loeffler worked in private equity at Crossroads Group, and in equity research at William Blair & Company and at Citi Global Asset Management. She began her career in the automotive industry, holding various marketing and operations roles at Toyota Motor Sales, USA and at Lexus, USA. A native of central Illinois, Loeffler earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and completed a Master of Business Administration at the Kellstadt Graduate School of Business at DePaul University in Chicago. A Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), Loeffler also serves on the Board of Directors of the American Red Cross- Metro Atlanta Chapter and on the Advisory Board for the Gene Siskel Film Center in Chicago.

PETE CANALICHIO CEO

Pete Canalichio was appointed as the CEO of the Atlanta Dream in January 2012 and brings extensive leadership experience to the franchise. In this role, Canalichio is in charge of the business operations and oversees the departments of Finance and Human Resources, Marketing and Communications, Sponsorship, and Ticket Sales and Service. Canalichio is the founder of Licensing Brands, Inc., a brand-centric company dedicated to helping brand owners and manufacturers harness the power of brand extensions through licensing. He has also held leadership roles at Newell Rubbermaid, Tula Communications and Coca-Cola, specializing in branding and sports marketing across the Olympics, NASCAR and the FIFA World Cup. Canalichio previously served as General Manager of CardScan, a $20 million global technology business unit of Newell Rubbermaid. In a prior role directing Rubbermaid's global brand licensing program, he more than doubled royalty revenues and wholesale sales in just two years. As a Partner at Tula Communications, Canalichio spearheaded an aggressive pursuit to become Samsung's agency of record for its pioneering Olympic Torch Relay sponsorship. Canalichio has extensive experience in Olympic and sports marketing through his work for Coca-Cola, where he directed sponsorship activities in conjunction with the Salt Lake, Nagano and Atlanta Games. Canalichio began his career in the global finance unit at Coca-Cola and rose quickly to managing $32 billion in transactions annually as Treasury Operations Manager in London. Throughout his career, Canalichio has operated on a global scale, working in more than 40 countries and managing extensive projects across national and continental borders. Before transitioning to marketing and licensing arenas, Canalichio earned his MBA from the University of North Carolina. He is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy and was an award-winning Naval aviator and instructor pilot.

TONYA ALLEYNE
Senior Director of Marketing and Communications

Tonya Alleyne serves as Senior Director of Marketing and Communications and is in her fifth season with the Atlanta Dream. Prior to joining the Dream, Alleyne served as the head women's basketball coach of the San Diego City College Knights. She also served as the Media Relations Director for the Richmond Rage of the American Basketball League. Alleyne began her coaching career in 1994 at Arcadia University, a Division III school located in Glenside, Pennsylvania where she served as both head basketball coach and admissions counselor. She has also served as an assistant at the University of South Carolina where she was responsible for the team's marketing and community relations programs, scheduling, equipment, scouting, academics and summer camps. Alleyne then spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Fresno State University where her responsibilities included recruiting, coordinating team travel, scheduling, scouting, and conditioning. Alleyne began her coaching career following a successful collegiate playing career at Seton Hall University from 1987-1991. Alleyne ranks in seven different statistical categories in the Seton Hall record books, including seventh in there-point field goals made (44) and attempted (124), eighth in assists (312), and ninth in free-throw percentage (.732). Alleyne earned her bachelor's degree in Communications and a Master of Arts degree in Corporate and Public Communication from Seton Hall.

SPRAGUE PAYNTER
Director of Community & Public Relations

Sprague Paynter is in her fifth season with the Atlanta Dream and second as the team's Director of Community and Public Relations. In this role, she coordinates all publicity efforts on behalf of the team and front office, serving as the primary contact for local, national and electronic media. Paynter is also responsible for developing the team's community programs, executing national WNBA Cares initiatives within the Atlanta market and coordinating community outreach by Atlanta Dream players and staff. She joined the Dream in 2008 after spending a year as an assistant in the Atlanta Falcons community relations department. In this role, she assisted with the development of the Falcons community programs, events and player outreach and also assisted with the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders and Atlanta Falcons Women's Association. Paynter graduated from Emory University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Arts in English. She was a member of the women's basketball team and active in the service organization Volunteer Emory. A native of Wilmington, North Carolina, Paynter currently resides in Atlanta.

JOHN BARKER
Director of Sponsorship Sales and Service

John L. Barker joined the Atlanta Dream in January of 2012 after retiring from The Coca-Cola Company. He spent 35+ years with Coca-Cola in a variety of roles but most notably as the Director of Operations for the 2002 Salt Lake City Winter Olympics Activation Team and the Deputy General Manager, 2010 FIFA World Cup Project Team. He is an Ohio native and attended the University of Akron before joining The Coca-Cola Company in 1975.

NATALIE WHITE
Director of Ticket Sales and Service

From a decorated basketball career at Florida A&M University to a successful career as an executive in the sports industry, Natalie White has always possessed a strong drive and passion for athletics. The three-time All-MEAC honoree guided the Rattlerettes to two regular season conference titles and the 1995 MEAC Championship, named the MEAC Rookie of the Year in 1992, MEAC Player of the Year in 1995 and was inducted into the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Hall of Fame in 2010. Natalie currently holds the NCAA Division I record with 624 career steals. The Fort Valley, GA native earned both her Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Sports Management from Florida A&M University which helped propel her into a 10-year career with sport retail powerhouse, NIKE. With NIKE, Natalie earned numerous awards and recognition, including the company's prestigious EKIN of the Year in 2005, the highest achievement recognized for exuding NIKE's principles and brand. Always an advocate for the advancement of women's athletics, Natalie joined the WNBA's Atlanta Dream in 2009, where she currently serves as the Director of Ticket Sales and Service. Natalie also hosts her annual "Natalie White Basketball Camp" at Fort Valley State University.

MARYNELL MEADORS
Head Coach & General Manager

Marynell Meadors enters her fifth season as General Manager and Head Coach of the Atlanta Dream. In four seasons with the Dream, Meadors has led the Dream to three consecutive playoff appearances and back-to-back WNBA Finals appearances in 2010 and 2011.

She also serves as an assistant coach for USA Basketball under Head Coach Geno Auriemma. Meadors helped the team to a gold medal at the 2010 FIBA World Championship and will serve as an assistant coach at the 2012 Olympics in London.

Under the leadership of Meadors, the Dream is the two-time defending Eastern Conference Champion, finishing with a franchise best 20-14 record in 2011. Atlanta has advanced to the WNBA Finals the past two seasons, falling to the Seattle Storm in 2010 and the Minnesota Lynx in 2011.

Meadors was awarded the WNBA Coach of the Year in 2009 after leading the Dream to the second greatest single season turnaround in WNBA history. The Dream earned the franchise's first playoff berth, finishing second in the Eastern Conference with an 18-16 record after finishing 4-30 as an expansion team in 2008.

As General Manager, Meadors has been responsible for some notable acquisitions in her tenure with the Dream, including drafting Rookie of the Year Angel McCoughtry with the first overall pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft, bringing six-time WNBA All-Star Chamique Holdsclaw out of retirement, and signing former University of Georgia standouts Coco and Kelly Miller.

Prior to joining the Dream, Meadors spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach for the Washington Mystics. There she helped head coaches Richie Adubato and Tree Rollins to an aggregate record of 50-52, including a playoff appearance in 2006. Meadors also served as the first General Manager and Head Coach of the now-defunct Charlotte Sting where she led the franchise to the playoffs in each of its first two seasons. Following her tenure with the Sting, Meadors moved south where she was hired as the Director of Scouting for the Miami Sol.

Meadors has an extensive background in the women's college game, serving as the head coach at Florida State University and Tennessee Tech University for a combined 30 years. For two seasons prior to joining the Mystics, she served as an assistant coach for the University of Pittsburgh recruiting and scouting.

At Florida State, Meadors quickly turned the program around from three straight losing seasons prior to her arrival. The apex of her tenure came in 1991 when the Seminoles won the Metro Conference Championship and advanced to second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Before heading to Florida State, Meadors earned her stripes at Tennessee Tech where she won more than 300 games as head coach. She was the first head coach of the women's basketball program and in her 20 years at the helm, she posted a school-record .723 winning percentage. During her coaching tenure, she received numerous accolades, including Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year (1984) and she two-time Metro Conference Coach of the Year award winner (1990, 1991). In her time at Tennessee Tech, she steered the Golden Eagles to four OVC championships and two Metro Conference titles and became the first major women's college coach to win 350 games at one institution.

A true pioneer in the sport, Meadors was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 2011 for her contributions to women's basketball.

Meadors earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees from Middle Tennessee State University.

FRED WILLIAMS
Assistant Coach

Fred Williams enters his fifth season with the Atlanta Dream as an assistant coach, bringing more than two decades of coaching and scouting experience. Williams has been an integral part of the Atlanta Dream franchise, serving as an assistant coach since the team's inception. He has helped the Dream to three consecutive playoff appearances and back-to-back WNBA Finals appearances in 2010 and 2011. The Dream has improved each season with Williams on staff, including a franchise best 20-14 record last year. Prior to joining the Dream staff, Williams served as the head coach of the San Diego Siege, a National Women's Basketball League (NWBL) team. In 2006, he was named NWBL Coach of the Year and led the Siege to a 15-5 record and a championship appearance. Williams was also the head coach of the Utah Starzz (now the San Antonio Silver Stars). He led the Starzz from a 13-15 season in 1999 to playoff appearances in 2000 and 2001 with 18-14 and 19-13 seasons, respectively. He was also an assistant coach with the Charlotte Sting from 2003 until 2004. In addition to his WNBA experience, Williams spent 10 years coaching at the University of Southern California (USC) as an assistant coach/head coach and associate head coach under Cheryl Miller. During the 1983-84 season, he helped guide USC to a national championship and in 1996-97, he led USC to a 20-9 record and a trip to the NCAA tournament. At USC, Williams worked with past and future WNBA players Cynthia Cooper, Lisa Leslie, Tina Thompson, and Adrian Williams. In addition to his extensive coaching experience, Williams is a skilled recruiter who has brought in such players as Margo Dydek, career block leader; Jennifer Azzi, a former Olympian; and three-time WNBA All-Star Marie Ferdinand-Harris into his programs. He has also served as an advance scout for the NBA's Sacramento Kings and the Utah Jazz. Williams is a graduate of Boise State University.

JOE CIAMPI
Assistant Coach

Joe Ciampi joins the Atlanta Dream sideline as an assistant coach and the newest member of the coaching staff. Ciampi brings over 25 years of coaching experience and is a member of the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame and the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame. Ciampi spent 27 years as a head coach at the collegiate level for Auburn University and the U.S. Military Academy, posting an overall record of 607-213 (.740 winning percentage). He registered 20+ win seasons 19 times during his coaching career and received both National Coach of the Year (1987, 1989, 1993) and SEC Coach of the Year (1985, 1988, 1989) honors three times. In 25 seasons at Auburn University, Ciampi guided the Tigers to 16 NCAA appearances, including three consecutive trips to the national championship game in 1988, 1989 and 1990. He led Auburn to the 2003 Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT) championship, four Southeastern Conference (SEC) regular season titles (1981, 1987, 1988, 1989) and four SEC Tournament titles (1981, 1987, 1990, 1997). Under Ciampi's leadership, Auburn players gained All-SEC honors 39 times and Academic All-SEC honors 30 times. Ciampi coached multiple players that excelled at the international level, including U.S. Olympians Ruthie Bolton and Carolyn Jones and he also coached current WNBA player Le'Coe Willingham. Prior to taking the head coach position at Auburn in 1979, Ciampi spent two seasons as head coach of the U.S. Military Academy. Ciampi also currently serves as a color commentator for Comcast Sports South, covering SEC women's basketball. He has spent time as a consultant to multiple Division I women's basketball teams.

SUE PANEK

Director of Basketball Operations

Sue Panek is in her fifth season on the Dream staff, where she serves as the Director of Basketball Operations. Prior to joining the Dream, Panek spent the previous seven years as head coach of the girls' basketball team at Olympic High School in Charlotte, North Carolina. She also has experience in the WNBA as an assistant coach with the Charlotte Sting (1997-2001) and as an advanced scout with the Washington Mystics (2005-2006). Panek began her coaching career at Florida State University, where she was an assistant coach from 1993-1996. She then spent a year as an assistant at her alma mater, the University of Maryland, before accepting an assistant coaching position with the WNBA's Charlotte Sting (the team folded in 2007). As an assistant on the Sting staff for five seasons, Panek's responsibilities included: college scouting, player development, scouting of opponents, coordinating team travel, equipment management, and clinician with the Junior Hornets/Sting Youth Basketball Program. A member of the Maryland basketball team from 1988-1992, Panek helped the Terrapins to four straight NCAA tournament appearances, including a Final Four berth in 1989 and a trip to the Elite 8 in 1992. During her senior season, the Terrapins held the number one national ranking for four weeks. Panek graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Kinesiology from the University of Maryland. A native of Lilly, Pennylvania, she currently resides in Atlanta.

KIM MOSELEY

Head Athletic Trainer

Kim Moseley enters her fourth season with the Dream as Head Athletic Trainer. Moseley has been an athletic trainer for more than 30 years and is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and is licensed in both Georgia and Tennessee. This is Kim's second stop in the WNBA. She served as the athletic trainer for the WNBA Charlotte Sting in 1998 and 1999. In her career, Moseley has been a Head Women's Athletic Trainer at Florida State, Head Athletic Trainer at Trevecca Nazarene University and an Assistant Trainer at Southwest Texas State University, Tulane University and Rice University. A native of Biloxi, MS, Moseley presently resides in Franklin, Tennessee with her husband Don, who is an athletic trainer for the Tennessee Titans, and her two children, Matthew and Katherine. She received her Bachelor of Science and master's degrees from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1980 and 1981 respectively.

HISTORY

On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June 1997.

Since that day in 1996, there have been many firsts for the WNBA:
Val Ackerman -- the first president of the WNBA
Sheryl Swoopes -- the first player signed to the WNBA
Cynthia Cooper -- the league's first Most Valuable Player
Houston Comets -- the first WNBA champions
Lisa Leslie -- the first WNBA player to dunk (July 30 2002 vs. Miami)
Lauren Jackson -- the first international player to win MVP (2007)
Candace Parker -- the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)
Sylvia Fowles -- the first goaltending call (June 3, 2008 vs. L.A.)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, Calif. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

Fifteen years later, in a rematch of those same two teams at Staples Center in Los Angeles, the increased skill, talent, and athleticism of WNBA players was evident as the Sparks, led by center/forward Candace Parker, defeated the Liberty 96-91. In 2011, the league also selected its "Top 15 Players of All Time." Voting was conducted among fans, media, and current players and coaches. Those named to the list were Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Becky Hammon, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Ticha Penicheiro, Cappie Pondexter, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes, Diana Taurasi, Tina Thompson, and Teresa Weatherspoon,

A GROWING GAME

The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 14 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and the league reflects this trend, featuring 15 international players from six countries and territories at the start of the 2011 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased 277 percent since 1991 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 17 percent since 1991 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43 percent since 1991 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

ALL-STAR GAME

The San Antonio Silver Stars and the AT&T Center hosted the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game presented by adidas in San Antonio on Saturday, July 23, 2011.

The first WNBA All-Star Game was held in New York at Madison Square Garden in 1999. The Garden also hosted the event in 2003 and in 2006. Washington's Verizon Center (2002, 2007) is the other venue to host the game multiple times. Other All-Star Games were played in Phoenix (2000), Orlando (2001), and at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. (2009). Due to the Olympics, no All-Star Game was held in 2004 and 2008, although Radio City Music Hall in New York City was the site of an exhibition game on August 5, 2004, as the U.S. National Team, comprised mainly of WNBA greats, faced a squad of WNBA All-Stars in "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Game at Radio City." In 2010, the WNBA held a special event called "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun" at Mohegan Sun Arena in order to accommodate the FIBA World Championship schedule.

INSPIRING WOMEN

The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include Emmy-award winning news anchor Katie Couric (2011), U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Susan Rice (2010), Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts (2009), Good Morning America's Robin Roberts (2008), Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice (2007), and the WNBA All-Decade

Team (2006).

DAWN STALEY AWARD

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts, and love for the game. Winners include Charde Houston (2010), Chamique Holdsclaw (2009), Tamika Raymond (2008), and Tamika Catchings (2007). A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

MARKETING

The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

Marketing and Promotional Partners: adidas, American Express, Bacardi, BBVA, Boost Mobile, CieAura, Coca-Cola, Deuce Brand, EA Sports, Gatorade, General Mills/Wheaties, Growums, Hayworth, HP, InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG) Hotels, Jamba Juice, NewTek, Nike, Panasonic, Pepperidge Farm, Pirate's Booty, Russell Athletic, Sanofi Aventis, Sanofi Pasteur, Spalding

Media Partners: USA Today, Parenting Group, Essence, Heart & Soul

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fan base of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events.

On Aug. 22, 2011 the WNBA and Boost Mobile, an industry leader in no-contract wireless service, announced a landmark multiyear marketing partnership that makes Boost Mobile the first leaguewide marquee partner of the WNBA. As the league's most prominent partner, Boost Mobile is tied closely to the WNBA brand on a national level. As part of this partnership, the Boost Mobile brand is prominently featured on the front of the game jerseys of 10 teams. Additionally, special programming highlighting the "WNBA's Top 15 Moments presented by Boost Mobile" is included as part of the league's 15th season celebration.

The WNBA has an extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas. The sporting goods and apparel giant has served as the official outfitter of the WNBA, having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 and again in 2011. In 2008, adidas became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals, and was the presenting partner for the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game.

Five WNBA teams have entered the league's Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys – the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, the Los Angeles Sparks with Farmers Insurance Group, the Seattle Storm with Microsoft search engine Bing, the New York Liberty with Foxwoods Resort Casino, and the Washington Mystics with Inova Health System.

ATTENDANCE / TV RATINGS

In 2011, WNBA attendance increased for the fifth consecutive year and regular-season TV viewership on ESPN2 reached its highest level since 2005, as fans responded to one of the most compelling seasons in the league's 15-year history.

Viewership for the league's showcase events also increased. Viewership for the WNBA All-Star Game on ABC was up 46 percent vs. the last All-Star on ABC in 2009 (there was no All-Star Game in 2010). Viewership for the 2011 WNBA Finals was up four percent over the 2010 championship series. U.S. ratings for the first round of the 2011 WNBA Draft on ESPN increased 47 percent vs. the first round of 2010 Draft on ESPN2.

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2011 included more than two dozen high-definition regular-season playoffs and Finals games on ESPN2 and ABC, as well as 70 regular-season games and up to six playoff games on NBA TV. In addition, all WNBA games were available online via WNBA LiveAccess unless: (a) They were televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they streamed live on ESPN3.com and were later archived to WNBA.com, or (b) Their game window fell within a national broadcast window on ABC or ESPN2.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tipped off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's professional team sports league in the U.S.

DIGITAL/SOCIAL MEDIA

WNBA Digital assets continued to increase in popularity as WNBA.com saw continued growth during the 2011 season, with daily unique visits up 13 percent and overall visits up 11 percent. WNBA games streamed online at WNBA.com via LiveAccess saw a 55 percent increase in unique users. In terms of social media, the WNBA YouTube channel experienced a 35 percent increase in video views this season. The WNBA Facebook page (www.Facebook.com/wnba) saw an 11 percent increase in fans.

GLOBAL REACH

The WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2011, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 25 languages. In addition, for the sixth consecutive year, fans around the globe are able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on WNBA.com.

End-of-season 2011 WNBA rosters featured 15 international players from seven countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent are the three-time MVP, Seattle Storm forward/center Lauren Jackson (Australia), the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), the Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal), and Tulsa's Liz Cambage (Australia), whom the Shock selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2011 Draft.

WNBA DRAFT

The 2012 WNBA Draft presented by Boost Mobile took place on April 16 at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. It was the second straight year in which the league's draft was held on the ESPN campus. The Los Angeles Sparks selected Stanford University forward Nnemkadi Ogwumike as the No. 1 overall pick. The Seattle Storm selected Shekinna Stricklen second, the Minnesota Lynx tabbed Devereaux Peters third, the Tulsa Shock chose Glory Johnson fourth, and the San Antonio Silver Stars took Jantel Lavender fifth to round out the first five selections. In 2011, Maya Moore, selected No. 1 overall by the Lynx, went on to become the fifth top pick in the past six seasons to win Rookie of the Year honors.

OWNERSHIP

Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, and Tulsa Shock.

The Tulsa Shock (formerly Detroit), which began play in Tulsa in 2010, is owned by Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. The Connecticut Sun, which began operation in 2003 after relocating from Orlando, is owned by the Mohegan Tribe. The Chicago Sky is owned by Michael Alter.

Entering the 2012 season, 10 women also serve as majority or minority owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Paula Madison, Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Mary Brock and Kelly Loeffler (Atlanta); and Dawn Trudeau, Ginny Gilder, and Lisa Brummel of Force 10 Hoops L.L.C. (Seattle Storm). A 10th, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

On, Aug. 26, 2011, retired three-time league MVP Lisa Leslie became the first former WNBA player to become part owner of a team when she joined the existing ownership group of the Los Angeles Sparks led by Paula Madison and investors Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson.

In 2010, Tina Thompson of the Los Angeles Sparks became the all-time scoring leader with 6,413 points, surpassing her former teammate, Lisa Leslie (6,263) who retired following the 2009 season.

Tina Charles won the 2010 WNBA Rookie of the Year award after averaging 15.5 ppg, 11.7 rpg, and 1.7 bpg, while also setting league records for most rebounds (398) and doubles-doubles (22) in a season.

Lauren Jackson won the 2010 WNBA MVP presented by Kia Motors award and also took home 2010 WNBA Finals MVP honors.

Jackson also became the third player to earn WNBA MVP honors three times (2003, 2007, 2010), joining the Sparks' Lisa Leslie (2001, 2004, 2006) and the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes (2000, 2002, 2005). Houston's Cynthia Cooper earned the award twice (1997, 1998). The others to capture MVP honors are the Sacramento Monarchs' Yolanda Griffith (1999), the Sparks' Candace Parker (2008, when she became the first rookie in league history to earn the award), and the Phoenix Mercury's Diana Taurasi (2009).

Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first – and only – WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star, and Finals MVP awards in the same season (2001).

Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the same season (2008). The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game.

Lauren Jackson became the WNBA's youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point on July 27, 2007. Diana Taurasi subsequently surpassed Jackson as the fastest to 4,000 points in terms of fewest games played when she reached the milestone on July 27, 2009 in just 197 games.

Taurasi rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121), and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, recorded the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

WNBA CARES

Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting health and wellness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including WNBA FIT, Breast Health Awareness, and WNBA Green.

WNBA Cares

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on education, youth and family development and health and wellness.

WNBA FIT

The league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine.

Dribble, Dish & Swish, a program of NBA/WNBA Fit, is free for boys and girls ages 7 to 12 and encourages participants to be active and to maintain healthy lifestyles. The competition gives participants the opportunity to showcase their fundamental basketball skills and physical fitness through a time-based, half-court obstacle course. The local champion in each age and gender group will receive an all-expense paid trip to NBA All-Star, where they will compete in the national finals.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

VACCINES FOR TEENS

A national multimedia campaign designed to educate teens and their parents about the importance of vaccination against, potentially life-threatening diseases.

DRIBBLE TO STOP DIABETES

Campaign raising the awareness for diabetes and to promote the importance of healthy, active lifestyles, as well as diabetes awareness, prevention, and management.

April 11, 2011 - The WNBA becomes the first professional sports league to conduct its annual Draft at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. The Minnesota Lynx made Maya Moore the top overall selection of the 2011 WNBA Draft presented by adidas. Australian native Elizabeth Cambage, selected second by the Tulsa Shock, and Courtney Vandersloot, tapped third by the Chicago Sky, rounded out the top three picks.

April 21, 2011 - Laurel J. Richie, a veteran of more than three decades in consumer marketing, corporate branding, public relations and corporate management, is appointed President of the WNBA, NBA Commissioner David Stern announced. Laurel leaves her post as Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for Girl Scouts of the USA to join the WNBA.

June 21, 2011 - The Los Angeles Sparks host the New York Liberty at STAPLES Center in the WNBA's 15th Anniversary Game, played 15 years to the day of the league's inaugural matchup between the same two teams in LA. The Sparks win, 96-91.

July 23, 2011 - In honor of the WNBA's 15th season, the league unveiled its "Top 15 Players of All Time" during a halftime ceremony live on ABC at the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game presented by adidas. With consideration given to on-court performance and ability, leadership, sportsmanship, and community service, as well as to contributions to team success and women's basketball, voting was conducted by fans, select national and WNBA-market media, and by current players and coaches. The players named were: Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Becky Hammon, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Ticha Penicheiro, Cappie Pondexter, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes, Diana Taurasi, Tina Thompson, and Teresa Weatherspoon.

August 9, 2011 - In a road game at the Phoenix Mercury, Minnesota Lynx all-stars Lindsay Whalen and Seimone Augustus become the 35th and 36th players to surpass the 3,000-point mark for their respective careers, but the first pair of teammates to eclipse the mark in the same game. In the process, Augustus also tied the Mercury's Diana Taurasi as the fastest player in WNBA history to reach 3,000 (151 games).

August 22, 2011 - The WNBA and Boost Mobile, an industry leader in no-contract wireless service, announced a landmark multiyear marketing partnership that made Boost Mobile the first league-wide marquee partner of the WNBA. As part of the deal, the Boost Mobile brand logo was subsequently featured on the front of the game jerseys of 10 of the WNBA's 12 teams. It marked the first time the WNBA had a league partner with jersey branding for multiple teams throughout the season other than adidas, the league's official outfitter.

October 2, 2011 - Despite falling to the host Minnesota Lynx in Game 1 of the WNBA Finals, Atlanta Dream forward Angel McCoughtry set Finals records for points in a quarter (19 in the third), points in a half (27 in the second), and consecutive points (14 from late in the first half into the third quarter).

October 5, 2011 - The Atlanta Dream's Angel McCoughtry surpasses the WNBA Finals record (set by her in 2010) for most points in a single game with 38 in a loss to the host Minnesota Lynx.

October 7, 2011 - In a celebration of its 15th season, the WNBA and partner Boost Mobile unveiled the Top 15 Moments in league history as voted by fans. The top moment was Teresa Weatherspoon's half-court shot at the buzzer to win Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals for the New York Liberty and send that series to a decisive third game. Ranking second was the WNBA's first ever game (NY Liberty at LA Sparks, June 21, 1997); third was Sparks' center Lisa Leslie throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history in the first half of a game vs. the Miami Sol.

October 7, 2011 - The Minnesota Lynx captured their first WNBA title with a 73-67 win over the Atlanta Dream. Lynx guard/forward Seimone Augustus was named Finals MVP after leading the Lynx to a sweep in the best-of-five series. Augustus posted 22 points and seven assists in Game 1 and had a franchise-playoff record 36 points in Game 2, including 15 in the fourth quarter.

April 16, 2012 - The 2008 WNBA Draft presented by Boost Mobile takes place at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, CT, marking the second straight year that the draft was held on the campus of the league's broadcast partner. Stanford's Nnemkadi Ogwumike (Sparks), Tennessee's Shekinna Stricklen (Storm), Notre Dame's Devereaux Peters (Lynx), Tennessee's Glory Johnson (Shock), and Miami's Shenise Johnson (Silver Stars) are the top five picks.

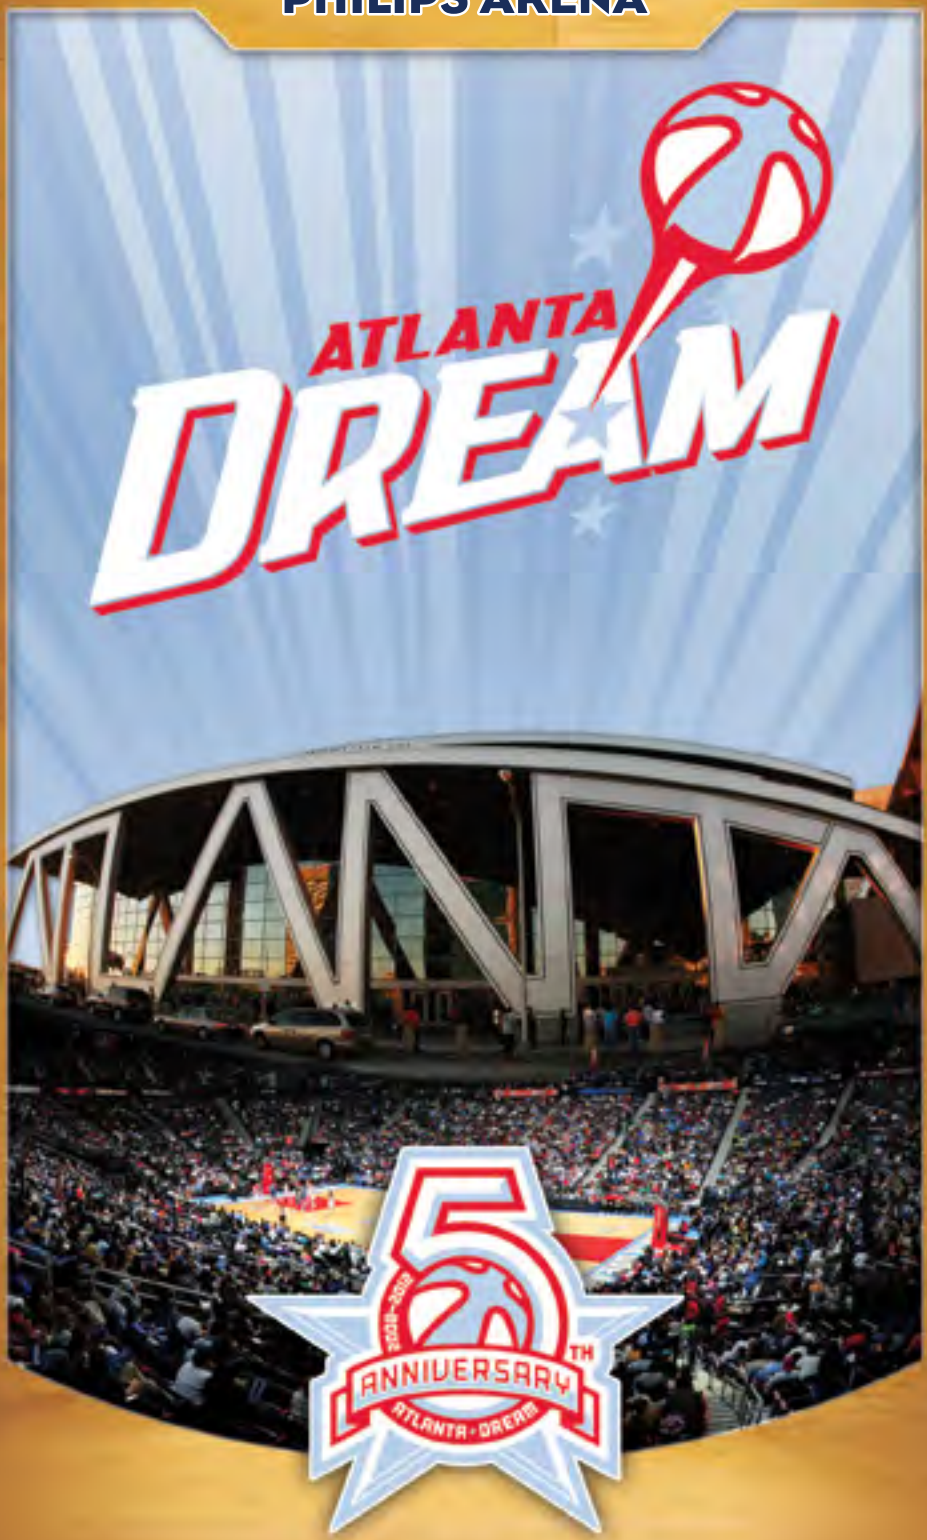
PHILIPS ARENA



Philips Arena
1 Philips Dr.
Atlanta, GA 30303

Widely considered one of the top venues in the world, Philips Arena serves as the home to more than 200 sports and entertainment events annually.
The Atlanta Hawks of the NBA play their home games at Philips Arena. The arena is owned and operated by Atlanta Spirit, LLC. and is sponsored by Philips Electronics, for which it was named.

Located in the heart of downtown Atlanta, Philips Arena adjoins the CNN Center and is easily accessible via MARTA public transportation. On the exterior, angled steel columns in the grand entrance spell out 'ATLANTA' in 65-foot high illuminated letters. Since its completion in 1999, Philips Arena has earned numerous accolades in the entertainment industry. The venue was named the No. 3 concert and events venue in the United States and No. 8 worldwide by Pollstar magazine, based on attendance figures. Recent sporting events held at Philips Arena include the 2008 NHL All-Star Game, the 2004 U.S. Figure Skating Championships and the 2003 NBA All-Star Game.

DIRECTIONS FROM NORTH OF ATLANTA
Take I-75/I-85 South. Exit at Williams Street - Exit 249C. Turn right on Baker Street. Turn left onto Centennial Olympic Park Drive.

FROM SOUTH OF ATLANTA
Take I-75/I-85 North. Exit at Andrew Young International Blvd. - Exit 248C (one way street). Turn left onto Centennial Olympic Park Drive.

FROM EAST OF ATLANTA

FROM WEST OF ATLANTA

VIA MARTA
Philips Arena / CNN Center is located on the East / West line just one stop west of the Five Points Station.
PARKING: There are many parking options in downtown Atlanta; however, the following parking lots provide the closest access to Philips Arena: Centennial Deck (corner of Marietta and Centennial Olympic Park Drive), CNN Deck (south of the Centennial Deck on Centennial Olympic Park Drive) and the Georgia Dome Decks (accessible from Mangum, via Northside Drive).

DISABLED SEATING
Philips Arena has numerous seating options for disabled and accessible seating needs guests. Contact the Philips Arena Box Office for more information concerning accessible seating availability and pricing.
